Change My Mind.

Have you seen meme's like this on the internet before?

If not, this man is called Steven Crowder, and he goes to random parks, and asks people to debate with him with lots of different topics.

Let's have a quick look at one of his videos: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UHDIm73FZN0>

Today I have various questions for you to talk about.

I will give each of you a question card.

I will give you Agree or Disagree card for each question card and you have to defend and fight it is right or even if you think it is wrong.

The rest of the class have to argue the reasons why the opposite to your argument is better.

Print the last 2 pages double sided and hand out to your students.

Have fun,

Bernard
